HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

The Avondale Mining Catastrophe

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 7.—Special trains ran from here to Avondale this morning, free of expense, every hour, until 11 o'clock, when people became so dense that they obstructed the relief parties. The whole community is thrilled with horror here at the great calamity. All work is suspended in the mines in this vicinity, and nearly the whole force of miners have gone to Avondale to remain till their brethren are brought up dead or alive. The whole country round is flocking to the scene of the disaster. The streets are thronged with women, relations and friends of the men in the Avondale pit, eagerly besieging every person arriving, for information. Their weeping fills the air. Mining cannot be resumed at any works of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad companies within a week,—not at least until all the funerals of the Avondale dead are over. The fact of the long and severe strike just ended adds greatly to the destitution which will follow the calamity. The widows and orphans will number not less than six hundred. At eight o'clock the crowd was cleared and a rope inclosure made around the mouth of the shaft by the police. An engine and fan were got to work at forty minutes past nine o'clock. Shortly after it was connected with a canvass conductor that reaches to the bottom, 237 feet. Superintendent Corwin of the Halston mine, and J. P. Davis, carpenter of the Avondale mine, descended one hundred feet and lowered four lamps to within fifteen feet of the bottom. The lamps burned freely. After remaining in the shaft forty minutes they returned. Afterwards, a Committee of miners descended the shaft with a cart. In half an hour they ascended to the mouth of the shaft, reporting that after leaving the platform on which they went down they proceeded about thirty feet into the gangway, finding a great deal of carbonic acid gas and black damp. They retreated after conveying the end of a large canvas air conveyor as far into the mine as they went. The damp was between two or three feet deep on the bottom of the mine. Thereupon another committee of miners began to descend into the shaft. The fan was kept constantly in motion during all the time, forcing fresh air into the mine. During these proceedings at the shaft, some fifty volunteers were formed, regularly officered by the miners, to descend and recover the body of their companions. A committee of twenty citizens canvassed the throng with a subscription book for the orphans and widows of the victims lost. Experienced miners give up all hopes of finding any one alive in the mine. Forty six miners were enrolled under competent superintendents, with two experienced miners as advisers. They have the direction of operations after the descent shall be made. 300 miners from Coalville have arrived. There are thousands upon the grounds in the immediate vicinity, nearly one half women and children. At one o'clock in the afternoon, a second party returned safely as had the first. They had penetrated the gangway a distance of seventy-five feet and found a large door wide open! They then went one hundred feet further in one passage and found a small door closed. After opening this, which was to give circulation to the air, they returned. Had this small door been opened there might have been a shade of hope, as the gas and fire would have had free passage around the circuit and out again. The third set of men, four in number, went down and came back in fifteen minutes, two of them so overcome with the effects of gas that they are being restored with difficulty. Gas is coming out of the outer mine very fast since the passage way was opened. The wildest excitement prevails and the people are kept back with great difficulty.

Later: The two miners are saved at last. It seems idle to peril life by any further attempt to go down, as now the gas is so strong that no attempt can be made to reach the main door or penetrate the mine until the outer gangway is cleared of gas. It is uncertain how long this will take. There is really no ground to hope that a single life remains. Everybody gives them up and nothing probably remains to be done but to recover the bodies.

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 7.—Latest—four men went down this evening. They reached a furnace which they found all right, except that it was still burning. They could not proceed in arranging their water hose this time. They were not seriously affected by the damps.

Further Particulars of the Avondale Disaster.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—A special from Scranton says that not less than 135 nor more than 250 people were in the mine when the accident occurred. Some men who went down the shaft reported that the fire in the furnace wall is out. The presumption is that when the fire broke out the miners kept their senses, and having dragged the fire, fled to the upper chamber, closing the doors behind them. Supposing this to be true, the rescuers proceeded on the plan of forcing fresh air into the mine. This continued until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when a party of men penetrating two hundred feet and opening the door, made the discovery that the fire was still burning in the furnace. It had been ignited by the coal piled outside. Those understanding the situation, upon leaning over, saw in a moment that all hopes was at an end, and all that could be done was to drag the lost men from their fiery tomb to a Christian burial. A change of operations was then decided upon. It was determined to direct immediate efforts to extinguish the fire. Means are now being used to that end, and the night will be occupied in deluging the mine with water.

Home for Aged Men

BOSTON, Sept. 8.—To day $41,000 have been subscribed and a fine estate purchased on Spring field street for a home for aged men. Additional subscriptions to the amount of $12,000 are being made to furnish it.

J. C. Howe, an aged and well known merchant died to-day.

Another Revenue Collector in Trouble.

Col. Braddish entered a complaint against Col. Lyman, Collector of the District, for selling liquor to town agents without stamps. He was held in $1,000 bail for trial. The defendant claims the liquors sold were in original packages, and required no stamps.

Heavy Libel Suit.

MOBILE, Sept. 8.—Suit for libel damages at $10,000 was entered to-day, and summons served on Col. Mann, of the Register, for alleged defamation of character of the Superintendent of Public Schools in this city. Like suits have been instituted against Col. Smith of the Register and another gentleman.

From Texas.

A fruit train, hence for Houston, fell through Clear creek bridge and was smashed. No lives lost.

A fire at Nassua this morning destroyed property to the amount of $45,000.

Condition of Senator Fessenden.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 8. Senator Fessenden lingers in the same condition as last reported.

Miscellaneous.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 8.—The election of city officers resulted in the election of Valenda, Republican for Mayor. The Republicans also elected a majority of the City Council.

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—David Welch a street car driver, shot and fatally wounded his wife while entering the door of her father's house last night. The parties were married about a year ago. Mrs. Welch, who is young and handsome, learned that her husband had another wife living, and she returned to her parents and sued for a divorce, since which he has several times followed and annoyed her. Last night he deliberately shot her without a word. He was arrested and expressed joy a the deed.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8,—It is learned that no charge of fraud has been made against Collector Sheridan Shook. It says his being held to bail is simply for the purpose of procuring certain necessary evidence against other parties. Shook appeared voluntarily in court. The supposed guilty parties have not yet been arrested. The frauds consist in the collection of a large amount of money of which no account is returned to the Assessor.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—The air line road to Boston is progressing rapidly. It will be finished soon. It will be twenty-six miles shorter than the present route.

Negotiations have been commenced for a light cable on Prof. Varley's plan from Ireland to America.

A Washington special says the filibustering expeditions from Macon, Georgia, was captured by the United States Marshal, the steamboat conveying the party having grounded on a sand bar while descending the river. Unless the proposition pending with Spain results in an armistice, during which the question at issue between Cuba and Spain can be adjusted, it is now regarded certain that a proclamation will be issued recognizing the belligerents.

The President's advices from Mississippi lead him to believe that Dent will not be nominated, and in any event that the Conservative party will be defeated.

News from Texas shows a rapid change of feeling among Republicans. Hamilton will probably have little of the rebel support.

General Sherman is discharging the duties of the War Department.

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—A party of officers of the U. S. Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, leave at ten o'clock this morning for San Francisco. The party include E. D. Farnsworth, Grand Sire, of Tennessee; W. Venable, Grand Chaplain of Kentucky; J. G. Griswold, Grand Marshal of New Jersey; J. W. Smith, Grand Guardian, and Court, Nicholson and Rice, Past Grand Sires.

SALT LAKE, Sept. 8.—By telegraph from St. George, Utah, yesterday, we learn that Major Powell, with the Colorado Exploring Expedition, reached the mouth of the Rio Virgin, on the 30th, having made a successful trip. Nothing necessary to the success of the explorations was lost, but everything was with the last boat. Major Powell passed through St. George on Sunday last, on his way to this city, going east from here.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

PARIS, Sept. 7.—The Official Journal to-day contradicts the alarming rumor of the Emperor's health. It says the Emperor attends to his affairs daily. He suffers some from rheumatism, but at no time has his condition been such as to cause the least anxiety.

The Senate session is closed. The Emperor will come to Paris to morrow.

La Presse says the condition of the Emperor has improved a little since yesterday. His strength has increased and his pains diminished, but it is not believed he will be able to go out of doors to-day. He yesterday, in his bed, signed most of the decrees presented. To-day he received Rouher and Minister Bearing.

The senatus consultum, has just passed the Senate.

The Moniteur complains that it is difficult to obtain any authentic advices of the Emperor's condition to-day. No doubt the variations of temperature have exercised an unfavorable influence retarding the progress of his convalescence and rendering his pains more severe. The Emperor was unable to walk out yesterday, but passed an easy night. Meanwhile, Dr. Ricord has again been called to attend his Majesty.

Prince Gortzchakoff has arrived in Paris.

The Bourse is closed flat, rentes 70 francs and 2½ centimes.

MADRID, Sept. 7.—Estorlas, at the head of thirty Carlists, was yesterday defeated by the National troops near Genoa. Estorlas himself escaped to the mountains, but many of his men were captured. No Carlist band is known to be on Spanish soil. It is reported that 400 Carlists are at Perignon, on the French border, ready to enter Spain. Government has taken measures to prevent their entrance.

It is stated to day that General Sickles has sent a note to Government representing that public opinion will shortly compel the recognition of the Cuban insurgents.

The Epoca urges the dispatch of the last man and the expenditure of the last dollar rather than lose Cuba. It suggests that meetings be held in every town to show the state of Spanish feeling on this question, and concludes with the declaration, that the loss of Cuba would be a dishonor.

The Revolution and other journals urges the dispatch of troops to the island. Much uneasiness exists on the subject and funds are failing.

The note of the American Minister referred to is merely a protest against executions without trial in Cuba. It intimates that Spain cannot carry on a war there in a way repugnant to the civilized world, and advises that in the name of humanity that it might find it necessary to recognize the insurgents.

The Regent has issued a decree ordering a circular expressing that the thanks of the Government be sent to those Bishops who have complied with his late decree against ten of the recusant Bishops who are ordered to appear before the supreme tribunal.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—Dispatches from India state that half the Municipal Council of Cochin China, will be chosen from French and Americans born in that country, while the natives and Chinese are made eligible to the Council.

Dispatches from Alexandria report the cotton crop of the interior of Egypt excellent in quality and quantity.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—Sir James Anderson has withdrawn his connection with the French Cable Company.

Paul Bagley sailed to day per steamer Alpha for America to lay before President Grant his correspondence with Gladstone and others, in relation to the release of Fenian prisoners, and the prosecutions against him.

Harewood, arrested in New York on charge of fraud, and brought here, has been withdrawn and and the prisoner discharged.

The Times in an article on the French situation says many think Prince Napoleon's speech was only a feeler to arrive at men's minds. If so it was promptly answered. The clamor raised in places of real liberal aspirations in France is beyond doubt. The Prince's speech may be taken as the programme of Imperial government such as must arise when the Constitution is reformed on the basis of national sovereignty and municipal self government. Prince Napoleon's part in the new order of things depends on the chances of the Emperor's recovery. Should the Emperor live a Liberal Ministry, with Napoleon at its head, would be an experiment worth trying. If the Emperor's absence is to be from the Cabinet prolonged it is difficult to see who could dispute the lieutenancy of the Empire with Prince Napoleon. The present crisis in France cannot be without grave consequences, and the Prince has placed himself in a position which will be of no good for the Emperor to dispense with or overlook him.

BERLIN, Sept. 6.—At the next session of the Prussian Diet the liberal party will introduce a provision for municipal responsibility.

BERNE, Sept. 6.—The Federal Council has declared that it will take part in the joint action proposed by Prince Hopelobe, Bavarian Prime Minister, in regard to the Ecumenical Council.

Recruiting for the army of the Viceroy of Egypt has been forbidden in Switzerland.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The Herald's special from London, Sept. 6th, says the condition of Napoleon's health commands universal attention. Most reliable reports express the opinion that the health of the Emperor is unaltered and not improved. He has been quite weak for two days past and unable to attend to business of any sort.

ROME.—The correspondent of the Prussian Cross Gazette at Rome asserts that the late Syllabus of the Pope will form the chief subject of the deliberations of the Ecumenical Council. The paragraphs concerning the relations of Church and State will be modified, and probably intensified. The dogmas of the infallibility of the Pope and the spiritual and corporeal assumption of the Virgin will be promulgated. The Holy Father has expressed his regret that no schismatic or Protestant bishop has offered to take part in the Council.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—A Chinese burglar, Ah Sing, was arrested on Pike street last night, charged with burglary. In attempting to escape he jumped from a balcony, twenty-five feet and broke his leg.

The Hewster Rifles, a new military organization in this city, numbering twenty, was mustered into the service of the State last evening. They have been assigned the position of Co. H, 1st Regiment Infant

Upon the hills the wind is sharp and cold,
The sweet young grasses wither on the wold,
And we, O Lord! have wandered from the fold,
But evening brings us home.

Among the mists we stumbled, and the rocks
Where the brown lichen whitens, and the fox
Watches the straggler from the scattered flocks
But evening brings us home.

The sharp thorns prick us, and our tender feet
Are cut and bleeding, and the lambs repeat
Their pitiful complaint—O rest is sweet,
When evening brings us home.

We have been wounded by the hunter's darts,
Our eyes are very heavy, and our hearts
Search for Thy coming when the light departs,
As evening brings us home.

The darkness gathers. Through the gloom no star
Rises to guide us. We have wandered far;
Without thy lamp we know not where we are;
But evening brings us home.

The clouds are round us and the snowdrifts thicken,
O Thou, dear Shepherd! leave us not to sicken
In the waste night; the tardy footsteps quicken,
As evening brings us home.

Dupont Powder—Where and How Made.

We take the following from Bishop's History of American Manufactures.

"Eleuthere Irene Du Pont was the founder of the immese Works distinguished as the 'Brandywine Powder Works,' near Wilmington, Delaware. He was a native of France, and emigrated to the United States in the fall of 1799, landing at Newport, Rhode Island, January 1st, 1800. Having noticed the poor quality of the Gunpowder then made in America, he resolved to engage in its manufacture, of which he had some knowledge, having been a pupil of the celebrated French chemist, Lavoisier, who had charge of the "Bureau de Poudres et Saltpetres" under the French Government.

After some time spent in selecting a location, Mr. Du Pont established himself on the Brandywine creek, about four miles above the town of Wilmington, in the State of Delaware, where he prosecuted the business with such success that, at the time of his decease, at the United States Hotel in Philadelphia, in 1834, his establishment was the most extensive of its kind in this country, as it now is probably in the world.

Since the decease of its founder, the business has been managed by his sons and grandsons, who maintain the old firm-style of E. I. Du Pont de Nemours & Co. The Works of the firm comprise five complete manufactories,—four of them on the Brandywine, and one in Luzerne County, Pennsylvania, where Blasting Powder for colliers' use is largely made.

The original works, on the Brandywine, commenced operations in 1802, and have a capacity for producing five thousand pounds of Sporting Powder per day.

The middle, or Hagley Works, commenced in 1812, comprise two sets of works, in one enclosure, under a fall of twenty-two feet—so arranged that both can work on the same description of powder; or, if required, one set can manufacture one kind of powder, and the other set another kind; the two combined having a capacity of twenty-five thousand pounds of Blasting Powder per day.

The lower works, commenced in 1846, are under a fall of twelve feet, and have a capacity of five thousand pounds of Sporting Powder per day.

The Saltpetre Refinery, with Laboratory attached, is two hundred and fifty-eight feet, by ninety-six feet, with ample appliances for supplying all the nitre required for the fabrication of Powder, and also considerable quantities for the market, for such purposes as require an article chemically pure. Improvements the Refinery are large warehouses for the storage of saltpetre.

The [illegible] for the preparation of charcoal, three in number—are capable of furnishing all the coal required for the mills, the wood being cut and burned in and [illegible]

The [illegible] having two and a half pairs of stones, one on the [illegible] sale, with magazines, and a [illegible] can lie; the [illegible] creek, with ample [illegible] for landing coal, [illegible]

A [illegible] has published by [illegible] of Wilmington and the property of [illegible] Du Pont,

[illegible] to the Powder Works are extensive Machine and Mill-right Shops, where all repairs are made, and most of the machinery is built; also a Sawmill, Planing-mill, Carpenter and Blacksmith shops, and extensive buildings for the manufacture of wooden and [illegible] kegs and barrels, and of powder [illegible]

Railroad tracks are laid through the Powder Works, and the bulk of the transportation of the powder, in its various stages of manufacture, is done on cars drawn by horses or mules, of which the firm have about eighty.

Besides the Powder-mills, the firm own [illegible] acres of land, that stretch for a distance of three miles on both sides of the stream; and on this property there are [illegible] Woolen-mills, a Cotton-mill, a Merchant and Grist-mill, and a population of nearly four thousand persons. The farms attached to the works are in a high state of cultivation, and the roads are all macadamized for ease of transportation. The buildings on the [illegible] are mostly of stone, and very substantial, and the machinery is of the best and most costly character.

The high reputation so long maintained for the Brandywine Powder is due to the care bestowed on its manufacture, and to the constant personal supervision of the owners. The consumption of saltpetre, the principal ingredient in the manufacture, has been in a single year, including the Laverne County mills, over seven millions of pounds, the bulk of which was imported from Calcutta. The machinery in operation for the manufacture of Gunpowder is driven by three steam-engines and forty-seven water-wheels, the greater part of which are Turbines.

The manufactures embraces all discriptions of Powder, viz., Mammoth, Cannon, Mortar, Musket, and Rifle, for army and navy ordnance service; Diamond-grain, Eagle, and the various grades of Canister and and Sporting Powders; Shipping, Blasting, Mining, and Fuse Powders.

The production of the mills is principally consumed in the United States, the firm having [illegible] and [illegible] at all the most important points, with a principal depot for the Pacific States at San Francisco, and agencies in South America, and in the East and West Indies.

To illustrate the progress which has been made in the manufacture of Powder in the United States, it is only necessary to recall the fact that during the Crimean war the Allies, to enable them to prosecute the seige of Sebastopol, were obliged to procure large supplies of Gunpowder in the United States, (one) [illegible] of which was furnished by the Brandywine Powder-mills,) and that the American Powder compared favorably with the best that could be procured in Europe.

CAPITAL REMOVAL—NATIONAL UNIVERSITY. The West is moving for the National Capital: St. Louis wants it; Nauvoo wants it; so does Louisville, Quincy and a hundred other places. Chicago pretends not to want, and we suppose she can get along without it as well as with it. The obstacle in the way of removal at all is the great cost it will be to the nation. The Capitol buildings will of course have to be a little better than the present ones, which cost $40,000,000, but which are said to be worth no more than $25,000,000. To get over this objection the Western papers reply that a new building will be required, even if the Capitol be kept where it is, within the next ten years, costing $20,000,000. They also say that a National University is much needed, and that the old Capitol buildings is just the thing for it. On the whole, they figure it up that the country will rather save money than otherwise by expending $50,000,000 upon a new Capitol somewhere in the West and appropriating the property in Washington for a National University. They don't say how it would do to dispense with such a useless and cumbersome thing as a National University would likely turn out—none but one paper, the Chicago Journal, which frankly admits that the cost of removal would be $100,000,000, unless Chicago, or Nauvoo, or Quincy, or somoother place in Illinois, be selected.—Sac. Union.

MANKIND REFORMING.—There seems a general disposition, particularly among men, for reformation in some heretofore objectionable national characteristics. Tobacco antidotes are coming into favor and the weed is going out. Its slaves are reforming. We deem it also safe to assert that excess in stimulating drinks is not so common as a few years ago. Gin is not now on the apex of popularity. The line upon line, precept upon precept, iteration and reiteration, which, though the press, has gone on for years regarding the evil tendency of whisky and tobacco have produced an effect. People are slowly waking to a realization of the necessity and benefit arising from greater care of the physical. Yet reformation has scarcely started. There is to come still greater care on the part of every individual, each for him or herself, as to eating, drinking, clothing, bathing, exercise and the general regulation of habits of life. The rule is to be far stronger, mentally and physically, than at present. But many of our women have not as yet loosened the extra and fatal pressure about their waists.

THE EQUALIZER!

Treating Disease by Vacuum!

DR. H. A. BODMAN

HAVING PURCHASED HADFIELD'S EQUALIZER and the Patent Right for Multnomah county, would respectfully inform his friends and the public generally that he is prepared to treat and fully those Chronic cases on whom all other means of cure have failed.

Having used this Instrument in connection with his former practice for about three months, he is satisfied that it will accomplish all that is claimed for it in curing Chronic Diseases. He does not believe in the system of advertising cases cured, but any number of such may be seen on record at his office, consisting principally of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Paralysis, Curvature of the Spine, Nervous Debility, Dyspepsia, Weak Chests, Asthma, Nervous [illegible], Weak Lungs, Weak Backs, Weak, Stiff and Rheumatic Limbs, Sciatica, Spasms, Epilepsy, Palsy, St. Vitus Dance, Prolapsus Uteri, Obstructed Menstruation, with all their concomitant [illegible], Impotency and all kinds of weakness of the Sexual Organs. Such [illegible] confidently cured in from four to six weeks without medicine.

He [illegible] other remedies when he may, but the Equalizer generally performs the cure with the aid of any [illegible] whatever. It brings a fresh supply of blood and nutrition to all weak parts, thus creating new life and vigor, health, and strength in those parts. It breaks up congestion and inflammation by equalizing the circulation throughout every part of the system.

Give it a fair trial and you will be [illegible] with the results. It has been examined by thousands of physicians of all Schools of Medicine, and there has not been one dissenting voice to the superiority of the principle all acknowledge that it [illegible] in the [illegible] of Medicine.

The scale is four miles to an inch, making the map sixty seven by fifty one inches. THE SUBSCRIPTION PRICE IS TEN DOLLARS; RETAIL PRICE, TWELVE DOLLARS. The map will be furnished, colored, mounted and complete, by August 1. It was forwarded in March to the establishment of Colton & Co., New York, for publication.

INDORSEMENTS.

OLYMPIA, W. T., March 27, 1869.

C. A. WHITE, Esq.—Dear Sir: Having examined your original map, embracing that portion of Washington Territory west of the Cascade Range, I desire to add my testimony to its value. Having been engaged for a number of years in the surveys from Cape Flattery to the Head of Puget Sound, I have examined this portion of your map more critically than others, and I take pleasure in vouching for its general correctness.

This map will fill a want that has long been felt, not only among the residents of this Territory, but others, who are desirous of obtaining information of this portion of the "Far West," and I trust that we shall soon see it in a form suitable for general distribution.

JAS. S. LAWSON,
Asst. U. S. C. S.

We endorse the annexed opinion of Jas. S. Lawson, Esq., and will add that Mr. Chas. A. White is a practical Surveyor, and has had access to the township maps in the two Land Offices in this Territory, as also the Coast Survey charts; and we can vouch for his map of Washington Territory, west of the Cascade Range of Mountains, as being correct, and the only good map of the same territory that has been made.

In the case of [illegible] E. Pool, appellant, vs. W. G. [illegible] a motion was made to dismiss. Dowell & Fay & Stout for respondents. Motion [illegible] was made to dismiss in the case of Pat. F. [illegible]dent, vs. W. A. Owen and John Pawpaw, appellants. Motion argued and submitted. Kahler, Fay and Dowell, for appellants.

[illegible] O. [illegible] Co.—Mr. Madden, agent of this Great World Circus Company, is now in this city, making preliminary arrangements for an exhibition to be given on the 21st. His department is that of attending to the business of the company, which is doing on a very extensive scale. Enormous posters [illegible] up on the south side of the American Exchange, that for any [illegible] splendor [illegible] any thing of the kind yet [illegible] before the eyes of Portlanders. All day yesterday a large crowd was standing at the corner of Front and Washington streets, gazing at the [illegible] of lions, trained [illegible], leaping and flying acrobats, etc., all of which will be practiced in reality when the show arrives in our city. From representations in the press of [illegible] and Southern Oregon, where the show has exhibited, we are led to believe that it will be the finest circus ever brought to our State. The [illegible] connected with it will draw many persons [illegible], some of these "kings of the ring" [illegible] in Oregon before. The [illegible] said to be of the first class, and much of [illegible] will be of wonderful feats not [illegible] in the city of Portland. The great [illegible], known for many years as Ella Zoyara, who [illegible] all Europe a few years since by his (then her) wonderful equestrianship, [illegible] the great features while the other members of the company are said to be artists of the first class. The [illegible] of this company will appear in our paper next week.

[illegible] Humphrey, from Lane county, argued and the Court decided to dismiss, on ground that no [illegible] of judgment was to be found among the papers.

[illegible] motion for permission to have [illegible] to be spread on the records, and [illegible] from this court be issued to the Court below, [illegible] judgment heretofore rendered against these [illegible]

The following motions were argued and taken under advisement:

[illegible] vs. Hartless, from Benton county, to dismiss.

School District No. 60, vs. School District No. 18, from [illegible] for a rehearing.

The bonds of J. Q. Folger, et. al., vs. F. E. Robinson, [illegible] from Benton county, was argued and submitted.

O. P. Pool, appellant, vs. W. G. Huffom, respondent. [illegible] from Jackson county. Motion to dismiss appeal [illegible]

[illegible] vs. Johnson, respondent, vs. John Pawpaw, appellant, to dismiss appeal because no sufficient [illegible] of error was made. Motion sustained.

[illegible] AT ASTORIA.—Mr. Bowman, Secretary of the [illegible] Yacht Club, furnishes us the following particulars [illegible] to the first regatta by the Astoria club, which took place on the 4th inst.

Some thirty or thirty-five boats took part in the race, [illegible] of which made the round trip within the prescribed [illegible], the others being distanced. Those making the [illegible] in their order of starting were as follows:

No. 1	"	Adelaide.
" 2	"	Hartman Bachr.
" 3	"	T. P. Winship.
" 4	sloop	Ione.
" 5	"	Belle.
" 6	"	Mary H.
" 7	"	Jane Hagget.
" 8	"	Mary Hunt.
" 10	"	Clinton.
" 11	"	Astoria.

The sloop Winship arrived first at the starting point. Time not given.

Mr. Bowman was the guest of the Club while at Astoria, and we may expect that a friendly rivalry will spring up which will lead to exciting and interesting competition for the championship in yachting in Oregon. The Astoria Club, though with perhaps more and better opportunities for the exercise of their skill in boating, we doubt not, will find in the Club here a rival not easily outstripped.

PERUVIAN LLAMAS.—We were shown yesterday by the agent of the Great World's Circus which will exhibit shortly in this city, two Peruvian Llamas, that were brought up by the Mizpa Taylor to be added to the many [illegible] features of this celebrated company. These [illegible] are found in Peru, in both a wild and domesticated state and furnish the nations of that country with flesh to eat, milk to drink and wool or hair out of which cloth is made; besides being extensively used as beasts of burden for transporting over the mountainous [illegible] of South America. The specimens of this animal now in our city, are very fine ones, and being the first of the kind ever brought to Oregon, will doubtless [illegible] great attention.

BASE BALL.—[illegible] are requested to meet for practice at the [illegible] on Stark street, 5 P. M. to-day.

RED FOR OREGON.—A striking example of that policy by which California makes money out of Oregon is seen in the fact that certain articles which are produced here are taken to California, sold to parties there, then resold to dealers here, brought back to Oregon and put in the market to be sold to consumers here who have to pay the third man in San Francisco his charges, with the freight both ways, to get an Oregon production. R. E. Chatfield a grocer of this city, has now on hand a lot of Oregon hams which he purchased in San Francisco and is now offering them for sale to Oregonians. The strangest part of this operation is that hams brought to Portland directly from the producers in the Willamette valley are jobbing here at about twenty cents per pound, while the same which have paid the freight and charges to San Francisco and back can be sold here at one cent less per pound. If there is any financial ability displayed by our people in such a way of doing business we fail to see it, but Mr Chatfield has the articles on hand to show for themselves. He does well to buy where he can do so at a rate that will enable him to supply his customers at the lowest figure, but the policy of our people as shown in this instance, is something to be deprecated by every one desiring the prosperity of Oregon.

STATE FAIR POSTER.—One of the finest jobs of printing ever done in Oregon is that poster for the Ninth Annual State Fair, by A. L. Stinson, of Salem. We received one of these posters by Tuesday's mail, and were highly pleased with its mechanical execution in every respect. From it we learn that many material additions are made by the managers in all the appliances to make the approaching Fair the most completely successful in every respect. Some sixty premiums more are offered this year than ever before, besides the Society's silver cup which will be awarded to the lady taking six or more prizes in certain classes named. Ample accommodations for stock of all kinds entered for premiums will be provided, and every convenience for the comfort of visitors will be furnished. It will, from present indications, be a well managed and profitable occasion for the mechanics, stock-raisers and agriculturalists of Oregon, and instructive to all classes of her citizens. The Fair will be held on the 11th and 16th, inclusive, of next month. Prices of admission as follow: membership badge, $1 00; season ticket, $1 50; ticket for each day, $1 00. Ladies and children free.

MANIFEST.—The following is the manifest of the bark Almatia which arrived yesterday morning from San Francisco. S triangle, 817; A Myers, 3; diamond H, 565, L & Co, 46; H W C & Co, 7, S S & Co, 15, H & S, 30; diamond H F H, 2,835, E J N & Co, 9 L & Co, 2; Koshland Bros, 40; Smith & Davis, 145, C Westlake case piano, 1, Allen & Lewis, 2, C & M, 425, A & L, 503, Walter Bros, 82; J F J & Co, & J W Cowles 15; Everding & Boebe, 205; C L Parker, 10, T N Patton, 13, Wasserman & Co, 47; Hawley, Dodd & Co, 4, diamond C, 124; J S Barnard, trunk, 1, Millard & Van Schuyver, 18; Richardson & Co, 46; C & W 70, diamond D, 10, Richard Irving, 10; J M Breck 4, J Mason, 410; C B Comstock, 7; N & S, cedar lumber feet, 1,000; no mark, shs salt, 428; L Goldsmith, bales bags, 6; F L Tileston, cases, 8; B F Smith, 40; A B Richardson, 28; Friedman & Co, 35; Uzafovage & Wright, bbls lime, 100; M Seller, 28; diamond A, 50; Jackson, Sanderson & Co, 24, R Lowenstein, 4, J C J, 4, Binford & Hibbard, 33, E Mikeles, 27; R Coleman, 4; J E, 14; Williams & Myers, 197; S N Arrigoni, 1, Mrs C Levy, 1, Walla Walla Mfg Co, bales, 3.

RECEPTION THIS EVENING.—Hon. W. H Seward, who has for the past few days been visiting the Willamette valley, will return to Portland to-day. This evening a public reception in his honor will be given at the Philharmonic Hall, beginning at about half past seven o'clock. On account of the reception the sailing of the Moses Taylor, on which Mr. Seward will take his departure for San Francisco, has been postponed until ten o'clock to-night.

The reception will be under the control of the Mayor and Common Council, who have invited the military to appear in uniform, and our citizens generally to attend.

LARGE QUINCE.—Mr. J. C. Barnes, who lives about six miles from Portland, on the Hillsboro road, left at this office yesterday, one of the largest specimens of this fruit we have ever seen, and we have serious doubts if it can be beaten in any country. It measures twelve inches in circumference one way and fifteen in another.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Three "drunks" were sent up by Recorder Anderson yesterday for appropriating the sidewalks for dormitories. We presume from the steps taken by the Common Council at their meeting last night, such fellows will have a chance to work out their fines on the streets hereafter.

REAL ESTATE AND MONEY MATTERS AT SAN FRANCISCO.—Carter's Real Estate Gazette says:

The mortgages given in August number 245, and value $864,690. The releases numbered 118, and amounted to $389,243. There was a perfect famine for money during the first half of last month. Accommodations at the banks were not to be had, and the result was that real estate owners could not get money in the usual way, went with their property to the savings banks and obtained loans at lower rates of interest. In this way the mortgages of last month were greatly increased. The Hibernian Bank loaned last month about $90,000 more than in July; the Savings and Loan Society $34,500 more, and the Odd Fellows' Society $35,725 more. Private individuals, however, loaned much less than in the previous month, and thus the mortgages were only slightly larger than in July. The deficit between the mortgages and releases of last month was only $475,447, which is a very good showing for a time of monetary scarcity. Only 41 credit sales were made in August, by which mortgages of the value of $116,131 were recorded. This class of sales numbered 42 in July, and the mortgages caused by them had a value of $288,211. The deposits in one of our leading banks increased a quarter of a million of dollars last month, while the deposits at the savings banks have also largely increased.

BARNUM AND THE FIREMEN.—Barnum, the showman of Woolley Horse and Fejee Mermaid fame, is preparing a book, a sort of autobiography, which will be out this fall. A good story on Barnum has never seen the print, though it may be so in the forthcoming volume. When he was running the American Museum and bringing out the moral drama in his lecture room, he had, among other thing, an American historical piece, in which the battle of Monmouth was represented. Wanting a lot of supes, he went to an engine house in the Seventh district, and engaged thirty members of the company to appear as supes. They got along very well on the first night, but on the second, just as they were going on the stage, the fire-bells rang, announcing a fire in the Seventh District. The leader of the gang was dressed as Moll Pitcher, and the balance were Continental soldiers, Hessians, Indians and Redcoats. Just as they were, they rushed from the theatre and broke for the engine house. They met their engine on the way, and went in their strange costumes to put out the fire, quite forgetting that the great moral show could not go on in their absence.

THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT. 9, 1869.

The Southeastern States

Mr. Bowman who for something more than a year, has been in the employ of the East Side Railroad contractor, as superintendent of the machine and car-building shops, has been, this summer upon a visit to the Southeastern States, passing through Virginia, North and South Carolina and staying sometime in Florida and Georgia, in both of which States he had resided before the war. He returned to this city by the last steamer, and we had the pleasure, yesterday, of listening to his recitals of what he saw and heard upon his recent visit. Mr. Bowman is evidently a very intelligent and apparently impartial observer of men and things, and we are, therefore, disposed to think the public may care to hear something of what he says.

In all of the States which he visited, the people had planted more largely, this year, than in any former one since the war—corn, cotton, tobacco, hemp, sugar cane, etc. In Virginia the crop prospects were fair; in North and South Carolina, light; and in Florida and Georgia, very good. The industry of the country seems to be reviving in a great measure from the almost fatal blow given it by the war, and the people are beginning to feel hopeful of the future. Money is scarce, but is strongly hoped that the crops of this and next season will bring enough of it into the country to answer all legitimate uses. He finds that since he left Georgia, in 1863, that nearly all the large plantations have been gr eatly subdivided. In most cases negroes are occupying the smaller tracts, the lands having been either sold, given or leased to them. In a few cases, northern men who have gone there since the war, are occupying and cultivating small plantations. The negroes have built many small, cheap houses, both on farms and in the towns, and are doing much better than it had ever been expected they would, when left to their own direction. A considerable portion of the negro population are, however, still engaged upon the old plantations on which they were formerly slaves—working for hire. The Southern people have not yet outgrown, altogether, the old habit of depending on the negroes to do all the work, though many of them find it difficult to subsist upon hired help alone. As to the hold which the old habits have upon the planters, Mr. Bowman says, that there are many who prefer, rather than go to work themselves, to hire a negro for fifty or seventy-five cents a day; the negro, perhaps, buys one dollar, and the employer pays him his wages fifty or seventy-five cents and subsists himself and family upon the remaining fifty or twenty-five cents. Of course, this plan often results in the exhibition of humble wealth on the one side and gilded poverty on the other. The whites do not seem to have any of the fear of the negro as a violent element in the community—such as was common to hear in former times in connection with the proposition to give them freedom without colonization. The strongest feeling which Mr. Bowman heard expressed in connection with the fact that in many of the States the negro voters were in a majority and, therefore, the domination of the party in power, was where the whites succeeded by personal influence in controlling the vote for white candidates. As to this evil, the greater part of the people of the South are looking to an immigration to the North and from Europe. As yet, the influx of population from the North has not come up to the expectations formed in either section, upon the close of the war. There are within the last year a good many Germans arriving and settling in places where they are able to form little colonies. Very few immigrants have been received from any other European nation. In conversing with the more intelligent men of Georgia and Florida, which States have received, perhaps, more settlers from Northern States than either of the others mentioned, Mr. Bowman often heard expressions highly favorable to the coming of good men from the North; but they do not want "carpet-baggers." Very much of the old prejudice and antagonism toward the Northern people, in the aggregate, seems to have worn out and there is now very little objection to the immigration of as many as desire to come, if they only will come to invest their money, to stay, and to assist in the rebuilding and the development of the country.

The most marked improvement, since the war, is visible in Georgia. In this State, nearly all the railroads destroyed during the war have been rebuilt, houses and plantations have been renovated, industrial occupations are pursued with hopeful vigor, and the people begin to manifest much of their old thrift and energy. Something of this state of things is also noticeable in Florida, though in this State, the old values of lands and property have never been restored. Very many of the old plantations remain dismantled and desolate as the war left them, on account of the poverty of owners. Here, too, coming, the subdivision of the lands is looked upon as the eventual redemption of the people. To illustrate the comparative values of property before and since the war, Mr. Bowman states that he left a small farm in Florida in 1861, which cost and was worth $2,200. Upon his recent visit there he desired to sell it, but found that he could not get for it $200. Nobody had the money with which to replace the buildings, fences and improvements destroyed during the war. In North Carolina, very little improvement is visible, and in South Carolina scarcely any. Towns and country, alike, remain much as the war left them. Charleston, particularly, is dilapidated and most dreary in appearance. The walls of houses which cost in the erection, ten, twenty, or even fifty thousand dollars, remain in the same battered and tumble-down condition, as in 1865, and unoccupied. Much of the property is in the hands of men who are either not able to improve, or do not have sufficient confidence in the future of the city to invest. The people are gloomy in regard to the prospects, and it really seems as though the city had forever lost its former greatness.

A Batch of Horrors Unearthed.

The Olympia Transcript has found a mare's nest, a genuine article, filled with all sorts of the common pure equine eggs—nothing less than a nefarious conspiracy among certain bearded and booted and spurred, brigandish Oregonians and some of the "leading men" of Washington Territory to chop Oregon and Washington into mince, and then to eat the slices together to suit the peculiar views of the aforesaid conspiring brigands. It is a fearful discovery, truly, and calculated to make the American eagle scream with rage and horror, if indeed it does not strike that noble bird dumb at the very first shock. The "spectre of the youngest children of the Father of his Country" is terrible in the contemplation—no less a horror, than, as the Transcript has it, to be "absorbed, swallowed up, as a people, as a body politic," with the Olympian mud flats and railroad termini included. The said juvenile members of the parent, Washington, are to be subjected to even greater calamities and indignities than this gulping process—made to "dance," actually cut pigeon wings and "sich," to the ear-cracking strains of the Oregon fiddle. Yea, more, to "go down on our knees" and to be "the vassal" of a deadly enemy—Oregon! O, my country!

> Can such things be,
> And overcome us like a summer cloud
> Without our special wonder?

To be swallowed like a clam! made to dance like a jumping jack! forced to bend the supple knee! My countrymen, if you have tears to shed, prepare to shed them now! Naughty, naughty Oregon brigands! naughty, naughty "leading men" of Washington! How could you?

However, not to put too fine a point on it, all these startling and blood-freezing things may be so, but this is the first we have heard of it. We greatly fear that the ponderous "intellek" of our quiet and unsuspecting neighbor of the Transcript has been slightly touched by the late eclipse.

In General.

An Eastern exchange has adopted the plan of publishing weekly under the head of "Roll of Honor," the name of subscribers who have, during the week, paid for the paper. The "Roll," however, is the wittiest thing in the paper, judged by the Shakespearean standard—brevity.

The general tenor of the telegraphic dispatches and newspaper articles concerning the condition of the French Emperor, indicate a fear that his death at this juncture would be the prelude to another French revolution. France may be big to-day with events which hang on the tenure of one life.

A singular book is now being published in Europe a practical work founded on the story of the New Testament, to which is appended a description of Oregon and its scenery. It was written by Rev. Father De Lorme, who has resided at St. Louis, Oregon, for the last twenty-five years, and who is now in Rome to attend the Ecumeical Council.

A large party of tourists arrived at Helena, August 26th, en route from the Eastern States to Oregon and California. Among them were representatives from the business men of various Atlantic States and cities—four from Philadelphia, five from New York city, two from Erie, Pennsylvania, and one from Jersey City. They propose to "do" the Pacific States and Territories with a view to the establishment of business relations.

The Polk County Times rejoices that the "Democratic journalism in Oregon will no longer be disgraced by the miserable abortion heretofore known as the Lafayette Courier." The offending of the Courier was that it opposed repudiation of the national debt and a few other of the political enormities proposed to be perpetrated by the bed-rock, unwashed and unreconstructed Democracy—the left wing of the late rebellious forces.

The Sacramento Union warns the German immigrants not to come to California expecting to get small farms upon reasonable terms. It says they will sorely be disappointed in such expectations. The land laws of the United States and the land grabbers and monopolists of California, render it impossible to buy farms without paying four times as much as improved farms cost in Virginia, North Carolina, Alabama or Georgia. This is a bad state of things in California. We take pleasure in saying that, though farms and wild lands are held higher in Oregon than they should be, there are no land grabbers, nor land monopolists here, and we believe that there exists no great difficulty in the way of procuring as many "small farms" in the State as may be wanted.

Democratic demagogues affect a hackneyed championship of the laboring man. How truly they are his friends may be put up in a nut shell, thus: They demand free trade, so that the "poor man" may buy where he can buy cheapest—that is to say, buy foreign made goods. Such goods are cheap because they are made by cheap labor—so cheap that it starves the laborer and makes him the serf of capitalists. The doctrine of free trade carried into effect, in the United States, would bring the serf labor of Europe into competition with the labor of this country. The effect would be to stop manufactories in the United States. Where then would the laboring man find himself, with all manufacturing industries at a dead halt? Yet the Democracy would turn all the American operatives out of doors and into beggary for the doctrine of free trade which, after all, would benefit nobody but the foreign money kings.

THE WEST.

The New Orleans Republican says that there will be no yellow fever in that city this summer and fall.

In some parts of Texas corn is so abundant that farmers cannot get rid of it at twenty-five cents a bushel.

The city of Dubuque, heretofore considered the most populous in Iowa, is shown by official census to contain a population of 18,084. Davenport, by the enumeration, has 20,065, or 1,981 more than her northern rival.

Three companies of the Kentucky State militia, numbering, all told, about ninety-five men, left Lebanon Sunday morning, to be distributed in the lower counties, where the Regulators have been depredating.

A dispatch from St. Joseph says five hundred Chinese will shortly be sent to St. Joseph, whence they will be distributed to various points. Agencies will be established at St. Joseph, St. Louis, and Springfield, Mo.

Invitations have been sent to the following gentlemen to act as orators on the occasion of holding the National Capital Convention in St. Louis, in October: Senator Yates, of Illinois, Charles Sumner, of Massachusetts, Joseph Medill, of the Chicago Tribune, Hon. Geo. H. Pendleton, Hon. John Forsyth, of Alabama, and John C. Breckinridge. Invitations will also be sent to President Grant and Vice President Colax to be present.

The Chicago Enterprise says the total yield of John Bidwell's farm this year is 46,482 bushels—35,282 wheat, 10,300 barley, and 900 oats—being an excess of 2,200 bushels over last year. This large crop was harvested in ten day's shorter time than the crop of last year and at a considerably less expense. There were also cut 300 tons of hay besides there is now ripe and ready for gathering eleven acres of corn, said to be one of the finest fields to look at in the State.

Some Italian fishermen found a large grampus lying near Fort Point on the rocks, where it had been left by the receding tide. They at once attacked the monster with clubs and oars, and beat it to death; after which they got it on board of their boat and brought it to the city, and it is now on exhibition at the Washington street fish market. The fish is fourteen feet long, and will weigh a thousand pounds. The tail is seven feet long, and the body is furnished with powerful flukes. The jaws are armed with double rows of sharp teeth, and the whole aspect of the creature is savage and forbidding. The fishermen say it is the first animal of the kind ever captured in this vicinity.

There are 15,000 bushels wheat already in store at Eola, Polk county.

Mr Pollard, of Linn county, has a mare which is 28 years old, said to be active and capable of every day work.

The Independence merchants are offering 40 and 50 cents per bushel for wheat that has not sprouted over an inch long.

Item for the tourists. Mr. Tod Cameron, of Applegate Creek, Jackson county, has an apple tree now in full blossom.

An addition of twenty five families to the population of one neighborhood on French Prairie is expected this fall. Three of them have already arrived.

The Polk county Times says the sprouted condition of grain, in that county, rendering it unfit for milling, has created a brisk demand for hogs to which to feed it.

The town of Jacksonville is said to be exposed to dangers from flood, on account of the break in the breakwater embankment, above town, at the time of the "water-burst," not long since.

The Sentinel of last Saturday says: "Our Chinese population had a grand Masonic celebration this week. Some Americans witnessed a portion of the performance, and report that it was very interesting but exceedingly mysterious."

The carrier of the Unionist, on Sunday morning saw a meteor rise in the west, go across the sky with a noise like a rocket, and disappear in the east. It made everything as light as day and left a red train for a minute afterwards to mark its passage.

In the Umpqua land district, during the month of August, the following disposition was made of public lands. Number of acres sold, 2,579 13; number of acres taken under the homestead law, 1,391 82; number taken under the pre-emption act, 890—total, 3,930 05 acres.

The Unionist says: Mr. S. H. Claughton, of Lebanon, who has lately traveled from that place to Albany, says there is considerable grain still out. He thinks three fourths of the standing crops will be saved. One-fourth of the grain out is lying out in the fields and most of it will be lost.

The Roseburg Ensign says: It is reported that gold has been discovered near the ocean beach, a short distance north of the Coquille river in Coos county. The newly discovered diggings bear a close resemblance to the Randolph mines that are now being successfully worked. The gold is found in a streak of sand that has probably been deposited by the ocean many centuries ago. The pay streak is seven feet in thickness, and it is thought that the prospect will justify extensive preparations for the development of the mines.

WASHINGTON.

We clip the following items from the Transcript of September 4th:

The twelfth annual communication of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Washington Territory will be held in the Masonic Hall, at Olympia, commencing on Thursday, the 16th inst.

We learn that petitions are in circulation in this county, recommending Colonel William Cock for the Governorship and Hon. H. G. Struve for the position of Chief Justice.

Steilacoom is look up, "smartly," from all we can learn. Land adjoining the town that two years ago was sold for taxes—with buyers scarce—is now selling for $50 an acre.

Lands about Seattle that one year ago were worth $10 an acre are now selling from $50 to $100 an acre. Lands between Olympia and Tumwater, that were offered eight months ago for $20 per acre, was sold a very short time since for $100 per acre.

Henry Winsor is appointed deputy assessor for the Puget Sound District, vice Fred. A. Clarke, removed. S. F. Sahm, clerk in surveyor general's office, resigned. Captain Hamilton appointed carpenter at Puyallup reservation, vice A. W. Moore, resigned. Dr. C. H. Spinning, physician at Puyallup reservation, removed. S. F. Sahm appointed clerk to Tulalip agency.

The following amount of lands were disposed of, under the several acts of Congress, at the land office in Olympia, during the month of August, 1869: Lands sold for cash, 1,660 acres; lands entered under the homestead act, 4,119 acres; declaratory statements filed on, 1,660 acres; lands entered under donation act, 320 acres; military land warrants, 120 acres; homestead final proof, 1,660 acres. Total for July, 9,529.

The Seattle Intelligencer says: An effort is about being made to establish a Congregational Church, founded upon the Plymouth Rock confession of faith, at Seattle.

Gold has been found in paying quantities on a branch of the Skykomish. It is heavy flake gold. Smith and Low, the discoverers, have sent for quicksilver, rockers, etc., to work their claim.

The Western Star has the following: One French, a convict, escaped from the penitentiary on Monday last. $100 reward is offered for his capture.

Two gentlemen from Yamhill county, Oregon, had arrived, and gone out to hunt a suitable location to carry on an extensive dairy business. They represent seven families.

POLITICAL.

Mr. Ingersoll, who was nominated for Governor of Ohio by the State Prohibition Convention held at Mansfield on the 14th of July, has written a letter, declining the nomination.

George H. Pendleton thinks Chief Justice Chase lost "a golden opportunity to seal his popularity in the South" by deferring his decision in the case of the Mississippi murderer Yerger.

Gen. Canby officially announces Gov. Walker's majority to be 18,317. The majority of Lieut. Governor Lewis is 20,443, and Attorney General Taylor, 18,284. The total vote for Governor was 226,753.

"Vermiculation" is the suggestive title of a leading article in the Philadelphia Press, which commences: "In its fruitless endeavors to rid itself of old dogmas and regain a plausible position, the Democratic party imitates nothing so much as the writhing and twisting of a suspended worm."

Governor Powell Clayton, of Arkansas, is figuring for Senator McDonald's seat. The latter's term expires in 1871. Clayton stands on the Senator universal suffrage platform. Some of his admirers regard him as the coming great man of the Southwest, a sort of a Benton and Jackson rolled into one.

Ohio Democrats have a grievance which they hope to turn to good account. They learn that the Treasury Department forbids the manufacture of campaign tracts in the similitude of greenbacks to assist in the election of Mr. Pendleton. They hope to make about as much capital out of the "tyranny" of the department as they could have made by the plan of circulating the documents.

The latest bulletin about the Senatorial fight in Tennessee comes from Nashville to the Cincinnati Commercial, and is as follows: "The Senatorial question is still an absorbing topic of discussion. The election for Senator takes place the second Tuesday after the meeting of the Legislature. The fight lies between Johnson and Etheridge, and although the latter is said to have the inside track, I will now risk the prophecy that Andy is the coming man.

Some English astronomers are predicting a general conflagration in which will disappear all things terrestial. A general fire which, at the same time will smother all things animate, would not prove unacceptable to the masses. We think a vote on the question would show a handsome majority in favor of having the thing occur. The greatest objection to death is that one dislikes to go away and leave all his friends behind him. The wife does not wish to leave her husband, the mother her children; the husband his wife. Nothing would go further toward divesting death of its terrors than the conviction that it will occur like a friendly picnic—in company with one's friends.

WM. R. SEWALL and J. B. SPRENGER

Take this method of notifying their friends, the traveling public, that they have disposed of their interest in the Western Hotel, and hereafter will continue to manage the COSMOPOLITAN, which in the future as in the past, will always maintain its reputation as the BEST and only FIRST CLASS Hotel in the city.

SEWALL & SPRENGER, Proprietors.
